BURIAL & CREMATION PACKAGES

April 1, 2023

At Joldersma & Klein Funeral Home we believe that funeral pricing should be simple and clear; so we have created several package options for you to choose from.

The prices of all the package components are itemized on our funeral home's General Price List, which you will find enclosed in your information folder. You are always welcome to go directly to the General Price List and choose only the items you desire.

These packages do not include prices for certain items you may ask us to purchase for you, such as cemetery or crematory services, flowers, paid newspaper notices or other such cash advance items. The prices for these items will be shown on your bill or the statement describing the funeral goods and services you selected. These burial package prices are effective as of January 1, 2021 and are subject to change without notice.

OUR PAYMENT POLICY

At Joldersma & Klein Funeral Home we strive to keep our prices for services and merchandise affordable. We believe that if you research and compare our prices with other area funeral homes, you will find that we are very competitively priced and the service you receive from our caring staff is unsurpassed by anyone else in our business. We understand that everyone wants to be cognizant of finances; this is why we would like to provide you with this open and transparent description of our expectations for payment. If you have any questions about the information below please do not hesitate to discuss it with your funeral director.

We accept cash, most major credit and debit cards, personal checks, cashier checks and life insurance assignments as forms of payment.

When do we expect payment?

If you elect a form of immediate disposition, such as Direct Cremation or Immediate Burial, payment is due in full at the time of the arrangement conference.

For all other types of services, we ask that the cost for merchandise, sales tax and cash advance items be paid for at the time of the arrangement conference. The remaining balance (usually services provided by the funeral home) is due within 30 days from the date of the Statement of Funeral Goods and Services we will provide you with at the time of the arrangement conference. You will be given a final balance at the time services are rendered.

Joldersma & Klein Funeral Home reserves the right to request and receive payment in full at any time.

Life Insurance Assignments

We understand that many people take the responsible step of purchasing a life insurance policy to cover funeral expenses. As a service to the families we care for we offer the option to assign the life insurance death benefit to the funeral home to cover final expenses. This alleviates the family from having to pay for funeral expenses out of pocket. Our staff will initiate the claim process for you and process most of the paperwork. The following must be true in order for our firm to accept an assignment of proceeds from a life insurance company:

1. We must verify that the policy is still in good standing and greater than two years old.
2. The amount of the benefit of the policy must be enough to cover the complete cost of the funeral bill or the family will be responsible for paying the difference at the time of the arrangement conference.
3. The life insurance company must accept assignments from funeral homes.

If for any reason the life insurance company is unable to make payment to the funeral home once we have requested an assignment of proceeds, the balance of the bill will be due in full upon notification of denial from insurance company.

State Assistance

For families who meet certain asset/financial requirement of the State, the Department of Human Services (DHS) may pay for a portion of the funeral bill. We will accept payment from DHS. The State requires that the family portion of the bill be paid before DHS will make a payment. Your funeral director will explain the process and terms of applying for and receiving benefits from Department of Human Services.

OUR EMBALMING POLICY

Except in certain special cases, embalming is not required by law. However it is the policy of Joldersma & Klein Funeral Home that any time there is a public viewing of the body, embalming is required. We also require embalming for private viewing if the viewing occurs past 48 hours from the time of death or if a post-mortem exam including an autopsy or Gift of Life procedure has been performed.
